INSTRUCTIONS

PLEASE REFER TO: Part 174, Customs Regulations

Definitions*

"Liquidation" means the final computation or ascertainment of the duties or drawback accruing on an entry.

"Protest" means the seeking of review of a decision of an appropriate CBP officer. Such a review may be conducted by CBP officers who participated directly in the underlying decision.

"Further Review" means a request for review of the protest to be performed by a CBP officer who did not participate directly in the protested decision, or by the Commissioner, or his designee as provided in the CBP Regulations. This request will only be acted upon in the event that the protest would have been denied at the initial level of review. If you are filing for further review, you must answer each question in Item 14 on CBP Form-19 and provide justification for further review in Item 15.

What matters may be protested?

1. The appraised value of merchandise;
2. The classification and rate and amount of duties chargeable;
3. All charges within the jurisdiction of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security;
4. Exclusion of merchandise from entry or delivery, or demand for redelivery;
5. The liquidation or reliquidation of an entry;
6. The refusal to pay a claim for drawback; and
7. The refusal to reliquidate an entry under Sec. 520(c), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

Who may file a protest or application for further review?

1. The importer or consignee shown on the entry papers, or their sureties;
2. Any person paying any charge or exaction;
3. Any person seeking entry or delivery, or upon whom a demand for redelivery has been made;
4. Any person filing a claim for drawback; or
5. Any authorized agent of any of the persons described above.

Where to file protest:

With the port director whose decision is protested (at the port where entry was made).

When to file a protest:

Within 90 days after either: 1) the date of notice of liquidation or reliquidation; or 2) the date of the decision, involving neither a liquidation nor reliquidation, as to which the protest is made (e.g., the date of an exaction, the date of written notice excluding merchandise from entry or delivery or demand for redelivery); or 3) a surety may file within 90 days after the date of mailing of notice of demand for payment against its bond.

Contents of protest:

1. Name and address of the protestant;
2. The importer number of the protestant;
3. The number and date(s) of the entry(s);
4. The date of liquidation of the entry (or the date of a decision);
5. A specific description of the merchandise;
6. The nature of an justification for the objection set forth distinctly and specifically with respect to each category, claim,
7. The date of receipt and protest number of any protest previously filed that is the subject of a pending application for further review; and
8. If another party has not filed a timely protest, the surety's protest shall certify that the protest is not being filed collusively to extend another authorized person's time to protest.

NOTE: Under Item 5, Entry Details, "Check Digit" information is optional; however, CBP would appreciate receiving the information if you can provide it. All attachments to a protest (other than samples or similar exhibits) must be filed in quadruplicate.
